

Scan virus by Symantec Endpoint Protection

IT department will be set automatically Scan Virus at 12:00 o'clock of every day. But if you want scan by your self. You can using the following:

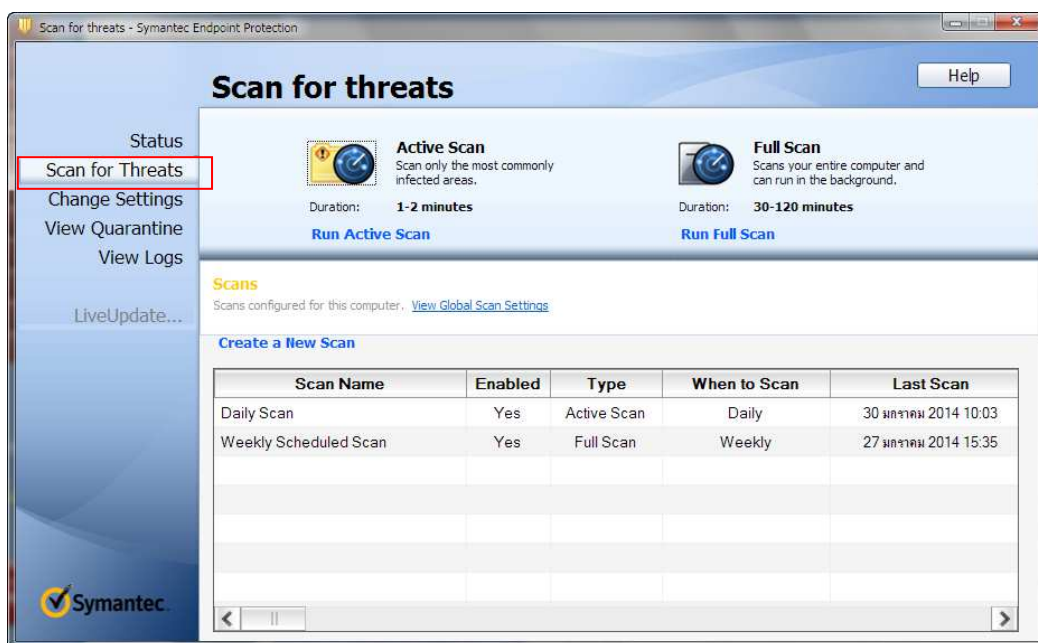

1. Double-click near the bottom right corner of the display to open up the program.

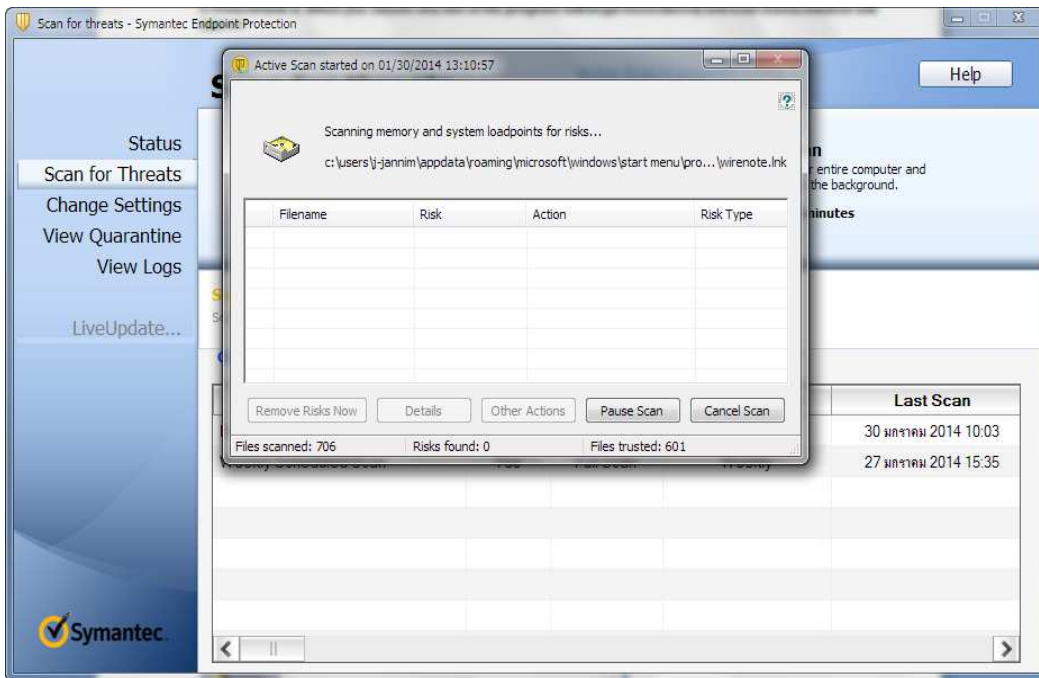

2. From an 1. Will appear a window of Symantec Endpoint Protection program and then click the menu command Scan for Threats.

On the right-hand side menu will appear for a scan selection following details

- Active Scan: Scan areas are used frequently. It will take about 1-2 minutes.
- Full Scan : Scan every file that is in range of your computer takes about 30-120 minutes.

3. From Article 2. When you choose any one of the program will begin immediately and scan status window will appear.

4. After the scan finished will appear the window as images. Then click the Close command button to complete.

